

TITLE 16. Section 2068.7
Veterinary Medical Board

Notice of Proposed Regulatory Action

Change of Location for Public Hearing

The California Regulatory Notice Register dated November 30, 2007 indicated that the Veterinary Medical Board was proposing a regulation that would adopt a new section allowing a lay person, whose supervising veterinarian has certified that they have a minimum of five years work experience and at least 7,360 hours of directed clinical practice in specific entry-level skills, eligibility to take the Registered Veterinary Technician examination.

The Veterinary Medical Board will conduct a public hearing on this proposed regulation on January 16, 2008, at a different location than stated in the original notice. The new hearing location is:

State Capitol

Room 2040

Sacramento, CA 95814

The hearing will begin at 10:00 a.m.
